More Details Of Bob Fenton Death Related

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril H. Fenton, 1679 West 257th st., Harbor City, was saddened last week when their last child, Staff Sgt. Robert Howard Fen- ton, Co. A, Americal Division, 164th Infantry, was declared dead by the War Department during the final mopping-up op- erations on the west portion of the island of Leyte, in the South Pacific.

Their only daughter, Mrs. Hel- en Marusch, died 12 years ago during child-birth.

Bob had the distinction of be- ing a member of the only divi- sion in the United States Army with a name instead of a num- ber. It was the first American Army division to go into offen- sive action against the Japs which was at Bougainville. The men were given the opportunity to vote for their name and in- signia. The name is derived from the combination of America and Caledonia.

Contrary to the belief of many that Leyte had already been taken by the Allies, continued fighting has been going on about 60 miles along the west portion of the island where the hard- fighting Americal division and Filipino forces have begun a systematic series of counterat- tacks under Lt. Gen. Robert Eichelberger, United States Eighth Army commander.

It is believed that it was dur- ing the large scale mopping up operations that he was killed in action because the date of his death was Feb. 21.

Bob had graduated in 1933, from Narbonne High school, where he was active in sports. He attended Compton Junior Col- lege, where he was a member of the tennis team, and gradu- ated in 1936. He was later em- ployed by Patten-Blin Lumber Company.

Bob went into the service dur- ing the second draft call, soon after war was declared, and was sent to Fort Ord and then into California coastal defense forces. He was one of 30 men recalled to Fort Ord where the 164th Infantry was reorganized. He then went to Australia and to New Caledonia where, under Ma- jor Gen. Alex Patch, he received his training in jungle warfare.

He took part in four major battles, Guadalcanal, Bougain- ville, Vellalavella and the Leyte invasion.

He had received the Combat Infantryman's Badge, the Good Conduct Medal, the Presidential Unit Citation and the Bronze Star, the latter awarded to him after he turned back a Jap ad- vance on his mortar position after every other man in his unit had been wounded or killed. He took over a machine gun which was not his weapon and for his bravery was awarded this citation. He had received expert ratings in five weapons.

He was an excellent photograp- her and had made a complete photographic record of the wild life and scenery of all the places he had visited, sending home more than 500 films, and was official photographer for his company.

George Steele Wins Bronze Star For Heroism

T/4 George Steele, of 21505 Berendo ave., Torrance, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal for "heroic service" in the area of Lindern, Germany, in Novem- ber. Awarded by direction of the President, Dec. 7, 1944, by the Seventh Armored Division headquarters, the citation reads: that Sergeant Steele won the medal "for distinguishing him- self by heroic service in connec- tion with military operations against an enemy of the United States on the November 29, 1944, in the area of Lindern, Ger- many. While moving forward in an attack on Lindern, the tank in which T/4 Steele was driving came under heavy enemy fire. A direct hit from an anti-tank gun disabled the vehicle, critical- ly wounding the tank comman- der. With complete disregard for his own safety, T/4 Steele braved volleys of small arms and artillery fire to carry the in- jured soldier two miles to a point where medical assistance was available. His courageous devotion to his wounded com- rade reflects the highest credit upon T/4 Steele and the Armed Forces."

HOME AGAIN . . . Sgt. Joe T. Marek, aerial gunner, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Marek of 1308 Portola ave., arrived Fri- day for a 21-days furlough from the European theatre of operations. Marek's furlough follows completion of 35 mis- sions, it is reported.

Torrance Hero Is Determined To See Berlin

Holder of the Purple Heart, three Oak Leaf Clusters and the Combat Infantry Badge, Sgt. Gus Dodos, in a recent letter to Miss Irene Mills, told of his determi- nation to see Berlin before he re- turns here for a furlough. He states, "I've been hit for the fourth time and have been in many tight spots. Although I've had a chance to come home I refused it. I'm going to set foot in Berlin before I return. I be- lieve I've gone farther into Ger- many than any other Torrance soldier."

He continues, "As you may know, I've been fighting in Ger- many since the drive started last October. All my old company is under German control. Luckily I happened to be two hours early or my fate would have been the same as theirs. My whole company was captured be- fore my eyes."

Carlson With Unit Which Was Awarded Plaque

Pvt. Carl G. Carlson, 1723 An- dree st., Torrance, Calif., is a member of the Third Division's Third Medical Battalion which was recently awarded the Merit- ous Service Unit Plaque for superior performance of duty and the performance of excep- tionally difficult tasks during the Anzio Beachhead campaign and the fall of Rome.

As a part of the Third Divi- sion the Third Medical Battalion has taken part in seven separate campaigns from French Morocco in North Africa, through Tun- sia, Sicily, Italy and France to the Rhine River.

The battalion on January 22, 1944, participated in the amphi- bious operation which secured the beachhead at Anzio, Italy. Thorough planning, training, in- doctrination and a high stand- ard of discipline enabled the battalion to render outstanding medical service to the Third Divi- sion throughout the four months on the beachhead and the his- toric breakthrough to Rome.

The entire beachhead was un- der continuous direct enemy ob- servation and all roads received frequent interdiction fire. The battalion's installations were shelled on 26 occasions and sub- jected to 16 bombing attacks, necessitating the digging in of the entire medical battalion. Ab- solute blackout prevailed and most ambulance runs were made at night to prevent disclosure of forward positions.

Double Tragedy Strikes Here

Mrs. Monroe Intermill, of 1323 Acacia ave., left Saturday for Steubenville, Ohio, where she was called by the critical illness of her mother.

On the same day, news of the death of Mr. Intermill's age father was received here. The deceased, whose home is in the east, was 96 years of age, it is reported.
